By defeating the St. Louis Browns yesterday the New Yorks took another step up from the cellar. In order to push the Browns into last place, Chance's men must win the three remaining games of the present series. Although the White Sox blanked the Athletics, the latter increased their lead, as the Clevelands suffered two setbacks at the hands of the Washingtons. The Red Sox won of the Washingtons. The Red Sox won a close game from the Tigers and still hold fourth place by a single point.

Wild pitching by Weilman and Lev-erenz, both southpaws, coupled with a erenz, both southpaws, coupled with a batting rally in the fifth inning which drove the former from the box, enabled the New Yorks, to subdue the St. Louis Browns yesterday at the Polo Grounds by a score of 6 to 5. In spite of the cool weather nearly 4,000 fans turned out, and were repaid amply for their loyalty, for the game bristled with thrilling situations some great fielding by Chance's im-Ray Fisher was touched up rather freely in the third and eighth frames, the Browns outbatting the New Yorks, 10 to 7. He was relieved by Pinch Hitter Peckinpaugh in the eighth session and the latter, using cool headed judgment, worked Leverenz for a base on balls that forced Hartzell across the plate with the winning Russell Ford pitched against the s in the ninth period and had them

Maisel and Gilhooley, the costly speed merchants, again attracted the attention of the fans. Maisel did some lightning base running, while Gilhooley, though hitless, figured in a play that killed a dangerous rally. Hartzell accepted seven chances without an error and was applauded loudly when he relayed a throw to the plate that cut off a run.

Zeider also robbed Covington of a base hit with a left handed stop and subsequently he threw a runner out at the plate with unerring aim after taking a hard grounder at deep short field. Cree ran the bases with fine results and sweeney made a wonderful catch of a foul off the netting in front of the press stand.

The Browns hustled for all they were Under their new manager, Jimmy Austin, they seemed anxious to win and they fought bitterly to the last ditch Catcher Agnew, however, made a fatal error that cost a run, while a fumble by the Indian, Balenti, helped the Chancemen immeasurably. Walker, the $10,000 left fielder, caught a couple of difficult drives and was a big factor in the visitors' run

It was in the third inning that the Browns first showed that Fisher wasn't invincible. Agnew opened it with a base hit to left and Weilman laid down a sacrifice. Shotton put Asnew on third with a stratch and then stole second. Austin's foul was gobbled by Maisel for the second out. Fisher walked Pratt and Walker sent everybody home with a smash to the left field bleachers for two bases. He was left as Cree pulled down a vicious liner from Williams's bat.

With Chance whooping things up on the coaching lines, the New Yorks began their uphill task with much gamesus. Browns first showed that Pisher wasn't invincible. Agnew opened it with a base hit to left and Weilman laid down a sac-

With Chance whooping things up on the coaching lines, the New Yorks began their upbill task with much gameness. Zeider began the last half of this inning with a fast single to right and took sec-ond on a wild pitch. Sweeney put him on third with an infield out and he ran home on Fisher's booming fly to Shotten, Agnew retired Maisel when he picked a twisting foul off the front of the grand

Another run was obtained by the New Yorks in the fourth session. Weilman passed Cree after Wolter had fanned and passed Cree after woiter had ranned and Birdie reached the middle sack on Hart-zell's out. Knight brought Cree home with a rattling base hit to centre, the former just beating Shotten's great throw to the plate, on which Long Jack hus-tled to second. Gilhooley also walked, but Austin threw out Zeider. Walliam first up in the fifth hear out livery for three runs in their half and took the lead. Sweeney started the raily with a screaming base hit to right and was advanced a peg by Fisher's særifice. Maisel shot a single to centre and Swee-ney was held at third by Chance as Shotney was held at third by chance as solution made a wonderfully quick throw to the pan. Pratt backed out into right field for Wolter's fly and after eating it field for Wolter's fly and after eating it up he lined the ball to the catcher.

Instantly Maisel made, a rush for second and Agnew threw down to Balenti, under whom Maisel slid in safety. Balenti returned the pill to the rubber, where Sweeney was called safe. Cree's terrific hit bounded off Austin's shins into the outfield and Maisel tied the score. Cree stole second and Hartzell punched a base hit to right. Williams made a perfect throw to Agnew, who, however, dropped the ball, and Cree's tally put the New Yorks one ahead. Knight was retired, Wellman to Covington.

With one down in the sixth, Walker

Wellman to Covington.

With one down in the sixth. Walker scratched a hit past Maisel and Williams hammered the ball clear to the bleachers in right centre. Walker raced home, and for a moment it looked as if Williams would score a home run. But Wolter threw the pellet to Hartzell, who relayed it to Sweeney with so much speed and accuracy that Williams was pinned down easily at the platter.

With these men on the bench the Newarks may find it difficult to maintain their comparatively small advantage over the hustling Rochesters, who have been gaining steadily for the past month. hooley threw to Maisel in a vain attempt to get Williams, but Maisel shot the leather to Zeider in time to nip Covington at Leverenz, who had relieved Weilman it the fifth, lost his balance in New York's half of the eighth. He began by passing Hartzell, who landed on second as Balent missed Knight's easy grounder. Gilhooley was robbed of a hit by Walker and Zelder's base on balls filled the bags. with a faitling base hit to centre, the former just beating Shotten's great throw to the plate, on which Long Jack hustled to second. Gilhooley also walked, but Austin threw out Zeider.

Weilman, first up in the fifth, beat out a piow roller to Zeider, ran to second on a passed ball, reached third on Shotten's out and was nailed at the plate on Austin's sharp grounder to Zeider. A magnificent throw stopped Austin's attempted steal.

The New Yorks gauged Weilman's delivery for three runs in their half and beautiness.

WHITE SOX BLANK MACKMEN.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9 .- The Chicago The score: PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9.—The Chicago White Sox shut out the Mackmen to-day in the first game of the series by the score of 2 to 3. The Macks could not hit with men on bases against Russell. Ping Bodie crashed the ball into the left field bleachers for a home run in the second inning. In the fourth Oldring muffed Jimmy Collins's high fly and the runner went to third. He scored on Bodie's single over centre. The score:

PINCH HITTER SETTLES GAMI

Reby Sends Home Winning Run Red Sox in Eleventh Inning. BOSTON, Sept. 9 .- The Red Sox took Boston, Sept. 9.—The Red Sox took an eleven inning game from Detroit to-day when Rehg, a pinch hitter, singled with two on base and drove Gardner across the plate with the run which gave the champions the game by 3 to 2.

Both teams had many chances to score, but good pitching nipped the railies. Hooper's error allowed the Tigers to the the score in the ninth, for two were out.

LAWSON BULLDOGS WIN AT STATE FAIR

Dreamwold Kennels Take Plums Leaving Home Breds Prizes for Lederer.

SHOW ON LARGER LINES

English Setters Best of Gun Workers-Sheepdogs for . San Francisco.

STRACUSE, Sept. .—So great was the attendance and interest taken in the inaugural bench show held under the auspices of the New York State Fair at Syracuse that the commissioners notified George Foley, the superintendent, that they would be prepared to put up from $3,000 to $5,000 in prize money for next year's exhibition of dogs. This will make it second in value in the cash sense to the Westminster Kennel Club show of New York.

York.

The entry was not a good one and several dogs arrived too late for competition.

The judging will be continued over tomorow and it is doubtful if Charles Hopton, who is to arrive in New York on the Olympic, will be able to keep his appointment to judge. In that case, his classes will be taken by Freeman Lloyd of New York, who was the all around adjudicator to-day.

Walter Murray had some nice classes of buildogs and judged them well. The

SAM QUICKLY ENDS FARCE.

Three Punches Finish John Lester

It took Sam Langford less than a round to finish his dusky opponent, John Les-ter Johnson, last night at the Atlantic ter Johnson, last night at the Atlantic Garden A. C., where the heavyweights were scheduled to go ten rounds. After Johnson went down twice from kidney punches, taking the count of nine each time, Referee Billy Moore stopped the farce, when Johnson fell over on his back without being hit, holding his side apparently in pain. Langford landed three punches during the go, all round house swings that landed with piledriving force on Johnson's back.

Langford tipped the beam at 185 pounds. He never looked as large or fat since he entered the ring a dozen years ago. As a contest the affair was a joke, Johnson being about as poor an opponent as could be found. When the first round opened John Lester took it on the run

Connie Warns Naps This Is Last Chance

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9. - Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, became loquacious enough to-day to announce that if Cleveland expects to win a pennant it had better do so this year, as the Western club won't have a chance next season. "If Cleveland wants a place in the baseball hall of fame," said Connie, "it had better climb into the niche this year, for it is my honest opinion it will have no chance next season, as I expect to have the best team I ever had."

FIVE PITCHERS IN FIRST.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 9.—Five pitchers were used in the first inning of the game with Baltimore here to-day, in which the locals won, 8 to 5. For the Orioles Cottrell could not locate the plate and Dan-trell could not locate the plate and Danforth was sent in to relieve him, with the bases all occupied. One run came in before the Indians were retired.

Schacht started for Newark by passing two men and then filled the bags by making an error. He was yanked out and Lee sent in to pitch while Holmes warmed up. Three runs were scored on Lee before Holmes took up the burden.
